

Speed Leading Tasks

- Compose 3 lists of 25 related items each.
- Line up the group members in order of age.
- You have an imaginary $100; your job is to decide as a group who should receive it.
- Line up the group members according to height.
- Come up with 10 uses of a “spork” (that spoon/fork combination that you get at some fast food restaurants).
- You’re on your way to pick up dinner; your job is to make a list of what everyone wants.
- Discuss the benefits of being an FCCLA state officer.
- Decide as a group the most relevant issue facing teens today.
- Create and perform a skit.
- Write a paragraph explaining why we are doing this activity.
- Brainstorm a list of 10 reasons FCCLA members benefit from attending state or national meetings.
- Name the presidents of the United States during the 1970s, '80s, and '90s.
- Memorize and tell everyone’s middle name.
- Come to a unanimous decision on who is the best teacher in your school.
- Name all 50 states.
- Use the members of the group to create a living sculpture that represents leadership.
- Organize the members of the group into sub-groups by grade in school.
- Line up the group in alphabetical order by first name.
- Write a list of 20 synonyms for the word “great.”

